

A detailed topographic map of the Dry Fork Community area in West Virginia. The map features the Dry Fork River flowing through the center, with the Indian Caves area to the north. The map is overlaid with a grid of contour lines indicating elevation. Key landmarks and locations marked include:

- Indian Caves: A large area of interest, possibly a cave system or a specific community area.
- Dry Fork River: The central water body, with several tributaries and a bridge crossing it.
- Graves and Cemeteries: Numerous individual graves and larger cemeteries are marked, including Tynes and Ferguson Cem, Shields Cem, Wagner Cem, and others.
- Buildings and Structures: Locations such as the Log School Site, Dry Fork Baptist Church, and various homes (e.g., old Ferge Tynes place, old Fred Saunders place) are indicated.
- Geographical Features: The map shows the Dry Fork River, Indian Caves, and the surrounding terrain with contour lines.
